Single Life Workshop

Single Life Workshop: A Journey Towards Intimate Relationships

In 2008, through a dream encounter with the Lord, Barry & Lori Byrne received a significant strategy on how to heal, strengthen and transform marriages – this was the birthing of Love After Marriage (LAM). After facilitating many LAM workshops and seeing the types of issues that many marriages struggled with, the Byrnes felt like the Lord was saying, "Get to the singles before they are married!" In 2010, the son of Barry & Lori Byrne – Brendon Byrne – created and led the original singles ministry home group that piloted the Single Life Workshop (SLW) ministry, which was founded by Barry, Lori & Brendon Byrne.

The goal for Single Life Workshop is to encourage growth in learning how to do relationships well. We don't believe in just teaching and passing on information. We put men and women in small groups so they have a hands-on opportunity to use the tools we've given them in order to relate to one another, share and be themselves. With their appointed "family", they will talk, laugh, play and work through the significant things that would otherwise hinder them in having healthy, transparent, intimate relationships. This workshop is not about finding a mate but about becoming healthy, confident and ready for an amazing marriage!

As you participate in this workshop, you will experience:

- Fresh and bold teaching to confront deep-rooted issues that prevent you from relationship
- Learning to love yourself so that you will allow others to love you
- Opportunities to practice sharing and being vulnerable within the safety of a small group
- Hope and preparation for an amazing marriage
- How to pursue and engage the opposite sex in relationship
- Cultivating healthy boundaries and learning the truth about "no"
- Biblical revelation to see sex as the incredible gift God's given to a husband and wife
- Homework assignments that challenge and activate the sessions
- Having a good time while being in community and learning to trust others

We'd love to partner with you in moving towards living a lifestyle of openness and vulnerability in your relationships to experience relationship the way God intended!

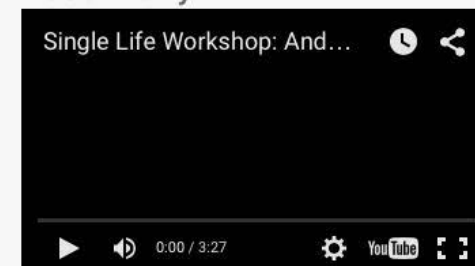

Weekly SLW Workshops

NHM CORE Values

VULNERABILITY AND TRANSPARENCY

This is essential within the small groups. People will come into the workshop with different comfort levels in regards to their willingness to share. Keep encouraging them to take risks to share openly about their lives and feelings, inviting the others (the Body of Christ) and Holy Spirit to come into those places and be the Wonderful Counselor.

NHM CORE Values

WISDOM AND DISCERNMENT

We want SLW to be a place where there is freedom to question and learn. We encourage people to recognize what they perceive through their spirit and to validate that perception through the Word of God and through the honest feedback of the SLW community.

Through this process, people learn to discern through their understanding as well as through their spirits.

NHM CORE Values

HONESTY AND TRUTHFULNESS

These go hand-in-hand with vulnerability and transparency. Encourage the singles to go to new levels of honesty with one another. Trust, security and intimacy are the fruit of honesty and truthfulness when combined with mutual respect. It is worth the risk!

NHM CORE Values

FAITH, BELIEF AND EXPECTATION

We begin each workshop by inviting the supernatural transforming power and presence of Holy Spirit. We have confidence that God will come and strengthen each person in their ability to form Godly and loving relationships. He is ready to empower everyone to do the impossible. He is for every person. We invite Holy Spirit to stir up faith in each person to believe and expect God's loving intervention!

NHM CORE Values

COMMITMENT

SLW requires a significant time commitment. In order to get the most out of SLW, people must make attending SLW and doing the homework a priority. In addition, they must commit to investing themselves emotionally and spiritually. This is one of the most important investments they can make on behalf of their lives and their relationships!

NHM CORE Values

DEPENDENCY ON HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit is really the One leading this workshop. We strive to continually listen to His direction throughout the sessions. For example, this can mean a willingness to go after prayer in areas He is bringing to the forefront or spending more time than allotted in an area because He's moving.

NHM CORE Values

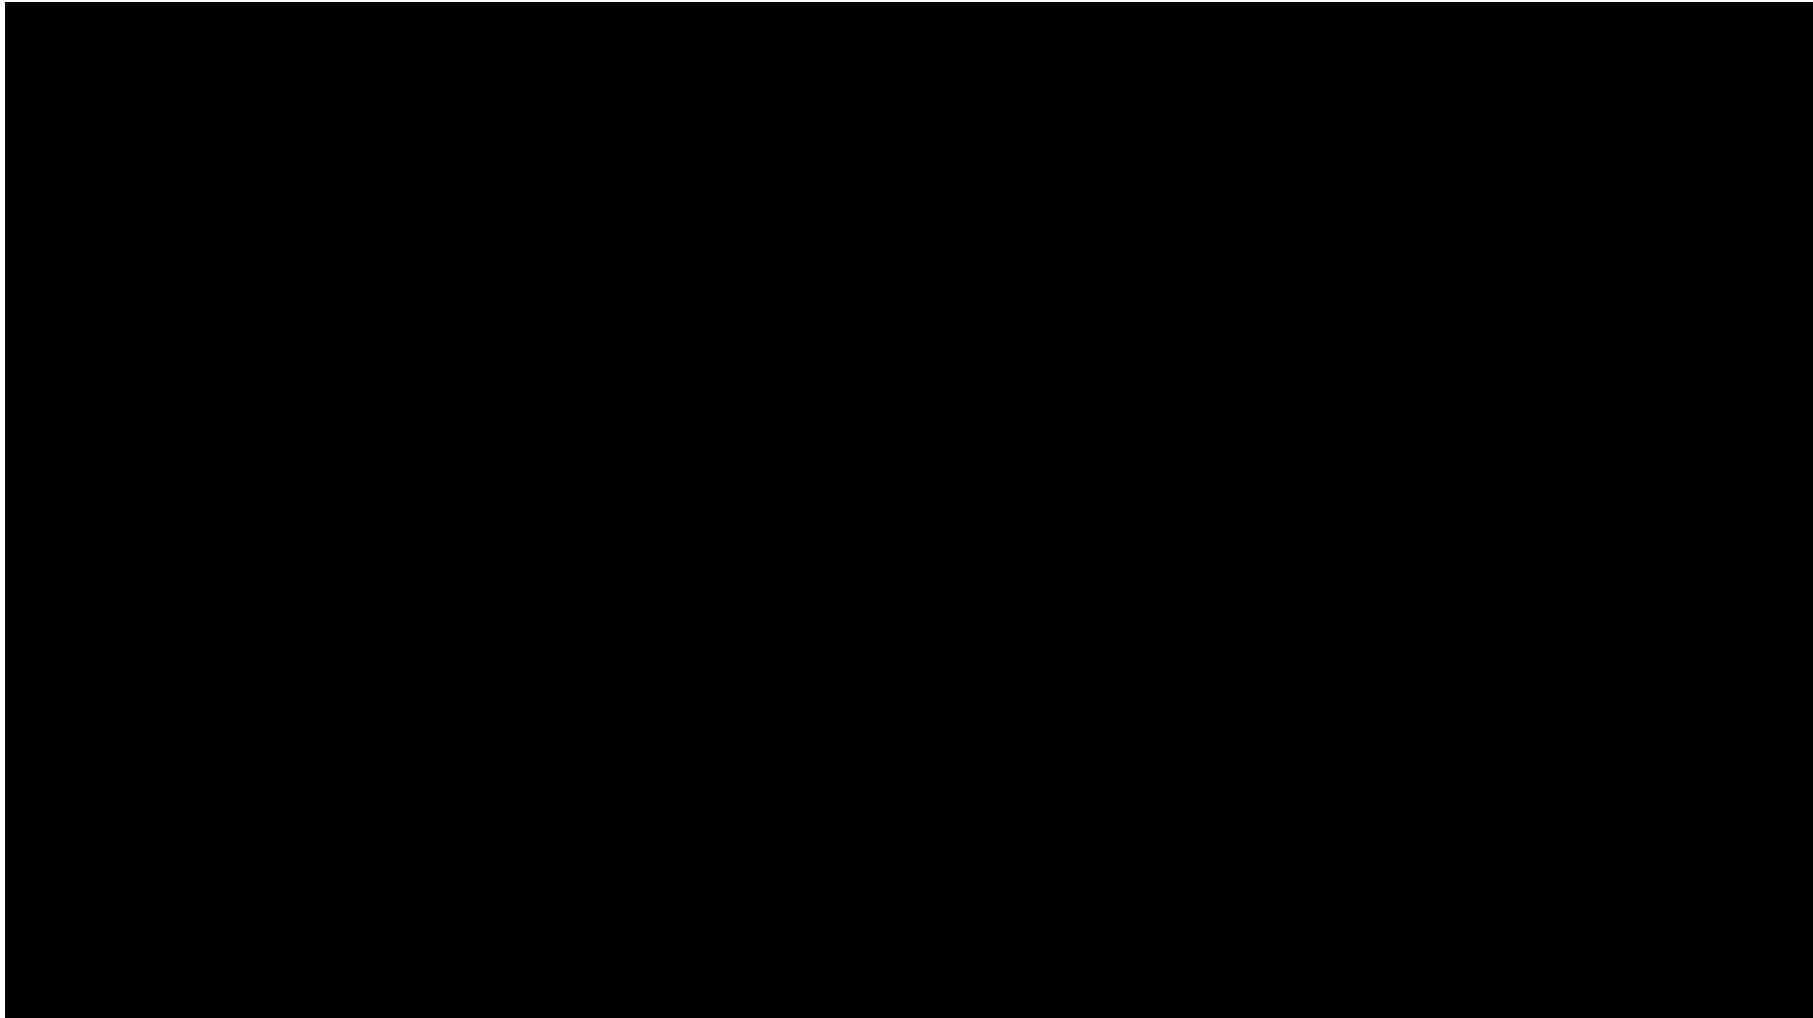

A FOUNDATION IN THE WORD OF GOD

All of our understanding and teaching of marriage and relationships is founded on truths and principles from the Bible.

NHM CORE Values

PERSEVERANCE

Every person needs to be reminded to stick to their commitment to getting breakthrough. They must not easily give up but be willing to make growth a priority. We have had people who did not get their breakthrough until one of the last sessions of the workshop. Encourage them to continue to press in for their breakthrough until they receive it!
